AANR NEWS

AANR Elections Coming in May

Next month, AANR is holding its bi-annual election for President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, and all 14 members of the Board of Trustees. All AANR members are encouraged to vote!

The election will be held May 1 to June 20, and members can vote one of three ways: online, by paper ballot, or by phone.

AANR will be using a firm called Vote-Now to provide election services. Vote-Now will be contacting all members by email to remind them about the election, so please don't discard this email when you receive it early in May. It is NOT spam!

Online voting is secure and easy, so don't be afraid to use it. If you want to vote online, we MUST have your email address, and each AANR member needs their own email address. Couples at the same mailing address typically use the same (one) email address, but you need to separate each person into different emails to vote this way. Call 1-800-TRY-NUDE to register the second email address so the system can accept the second person's ballot.

A Voter's Guide to all the candidates and propositions is included in the May issue of the Bulletin. If you don't receive this monthly AANR publication, the Guide is also available online at www.aanr.com/login/logincss.php.

Any questions, please contact the AANR main office at 1-800-TRY-NUDE.

Government Affairs

One of the primary reasons to belong to AANR (besides having fun) is to support our work that protects our right to be nude through legislation and the courts. and, where possible, to expand social nude recreation opportunities. Here is a summary of recent activity:

In Colorado, HB 18-1143 is a repeal of many of the nudity laws in the state which local courts have ruled unconstitutional. For example, a state court in Ft. Collins ruled that women have the same rights to top freedom as men. We are quietly supporting this because we don't want to stir up any opposition. Odds of passage are good.

In Oregon, the legislature has banned alcohol use on the nude beach at Sauvie Island, near Portland. Law enforcement wanted this, and it passed the legislature by a large majority.

In California, the state's Sex Offender Registry is being reorganized into tiers, with the worst offenders (child molestation, etc.) grouped together and others ranked by the seriousness of the felony. Those ticketed for simple nudity do not need to register in most cases, but we are watching to see how these regulations are re-written.

At Bates Beach, Santa Barbara County, California, the local police chief has retired. He agreed not to ticket for nudity there if there were no complaints. We plan to meet the new chief in coming weeks.

In Hawaii, SB 691 proposes to ban public nudity in the state, period. It has not yet been scheduled for a hearing and our team sees almost no chance for approval.

Hawaii's HB 2134 is a revenge porn bill supported by the women's caucus that is on the verge of passage. The language was tightened so that nudists who share photos are not covered.

We are looking into hosting a Government Affairs workshop at the AANR-West convention, so our members can gain a better understanding of what we do to promote or oppose various bills at the federal, state, and local levels.

News from Around the Region

Some Seats Still Available for Bus Ride to San Fran Bare2Breakers

As we announced last month, Lupin Lodge is providing a bus from its nudist resort in Los Gatos to San Francisco for this annual clothing optional run across the City by the Bay on Sunday, May 20. About 80,000 people regularly attend with several thousand enjoying the run while nude or top free.

Call Lupin at (408) 353-9200 to sign up for the 90-min bus ride from Lupin. Cost is $40 round trip. The transportation is basically non-profit since the money is used to rent the bus, pay the driver, and buy the gas.

The bus leaves Lupin at 6:00 a.m. to arrive comfortably before the 8:00 am starting time. Discount pricing is available for overnight and weekend stays at Lupin.

Arizona's Buff-a-teers to Host Movie Night and Camping Trip

By Hunter Macpherson, Buff Flyer Newsletter Editor

The Tucson's Buff-A-Teers Club held its annual board elections on Saturday, April 14 at a member's beautiful pine covered 5-acre property and lake called Wesworld. The business end of the get together included the club's annual election of its board officers. Elected to the Buff-A-Teers board were: President: Len Summers III, Vice President: Kirk Krentzel, Treasurer: Jim Reed, and Members at Large: Paul Tynan and Wes Scott.

Congratulations go to all the newly-elected board members who have dedicated themselves to serving the Buff-A-Teers for the 2018-19 season.

In addition to the board election, members of the Buff-A-Teers enjoyed a fully catered meal followed by nude croquet and a game of Timber Toss. That evening several members stayed to enjoy an outdoor projection screen showing of the classic movie The Maltese Falcon

After a night time campover, sleepy members woke up on Sunday morning to a hot breakfast of pancake, eggs, bacon, and orange juice.

The weekend of April 14-15 proved to be a fun event for the Buff-a-teers and everyone looks forward to other upcoming gettogethers and campovers in the future.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Tucson Buff-A-Teers are encouraged to inquire at tucsonbuffateers@gmail.com or call 520 298 3938.

Welcome our Newest Club: Swim Free Hawaii

On April 1, we welcomed the Swim Free Hawaii club to the Western Region. It is a boat charter, based at Honokōhau, Kalaoa, on the western Kona Coast of the "Big Island" of Hawaii.

Captain Chuck Hauptert has been conducting fishing charters for 30 years. He and his partner, Nova Neri, established Swim Free Hawaii last year to offer visitors and locals the opportunity to enjoy their charters in a clothing-optional environment.

A Southern California native, Hauptert discovered nude recreation in San Diego in the 1970s during the heyday of Black's Beach. Hauptert moved in 1978 to the Big Island, and decided to open a fishing charter business. A few years ago, he decided he was getting too old to "wrestle large and angry fish," and he decided to open his boat to those who just want to snorkel, whale watch, or just hang out on the boat at sunset.

Nude recreation throughout Hawaii tends to consist mostly of hard-to-reach beaches. Hauptert figured there would be a market for a clothing-optional charter, and business has grown mostly by word of mouth. He says he can take up to six guests per cruise. For parties of less than six, he'll fill the boat with partial groups who, as fellow nudists, inevitably get along.

SwimFree Hawaii has its own web site (www.swimfrehawaii.com), an active Facebook page, and even a few YouTube videos featuring passengers having fun. Contact Chuck and Nova at the web site to reserve your saltwater adventure...naturally!

AANR WEST TRADE SHOW UPDATE

AANR Booth Attracts the Curious at the Cal Parks & Rec Expo

AANR-West staffed a booth March 14-15 at a trade show sponsored by the California Department of Parks and Recreation. This is the largest regional park and recreation expo show in the nation with about 20,000 park employees attending the 4-day event at the Long Beach Convention Center. This was our opportunity to meet and speak to local park rangers, area supervisors, and local park law enforcement about the need for designated nude recreation areas within the state park system.

We found that many of the park employees were also interested in nude recreation opportunities for themselves as this was a "Bucket List" item for many. We collected names and emails for follow-up after the show.

We gave out several hundred brochures from virtually all the clubs and resorts in the west. We also gave out some spiffs such as beach balls, keyring flashlights and lip balm. The most sought-after item was a lapel pin we create new every year just for the show. There are many pin collectors out there, and they make a point of coming specifically to our booth to talk to us and get this year's version.

Celebrating our 20th Anniversary at Hangin' Loose on the Big Island

By Dennis Crane (Orange County, California)

In February, my wife and I decided to celebrate our 20th wedding anniversary by visiting the Hangin' Loose AANR club on the Big Island in Hawaii.

The story of Hangin' Loose

In 2000, Michael and Jan searched the Island for a place to create a Bed & Breakfast for naturists, as they were long time naturists themselves. They worked with a realtor who suggested the current property since there were no nearby neighbors, beautiful and lush vegetation all around, and private fencing. There are even lava tubs running below the property.

The main house needed massive work, but because of the price and location, they decided it had exciting potential. A few years later, they purchased the two adjoining lots, and then built rental cottages there, plus a couple of yurts. The Honeymoon Hale yurt became their most popular rental.

Hangin' Loose is probably about a 25-minute drive from the Hilo Airport.

Our Anniversary Story

Noreen and I arrived on the Big Island late on a Saturday afternoon. We drove up the long and dark driveway, covered by an awning of trees. We were greeted by Michael and Jan standing in front of their main house. They directed us to our Honeymoon Hale yurt. It was well furnished with a large kitchen area and an outdoor shower. The yurt eve had its own private Jacuzzi!

By the following morning, one could really appreciate how beautiful the place was, as it felt like you were living in a tropical rain forest with amazing trees, plants, and flowers growing everywhere.

Being at Hangin' Loose really forces you to slow down "Hawaiian style," and genuinely enjoy life and relax.

Simple pleasures of life was greatly enhanced by being in paradise surrounded by peace and quiet. Michael and Jan were always accommodating and willing to help us with every need. They gave us many hot tips on places to go and see. They also made sure we had our privacy on the property.

After a few days, we started doing the tourist things. On Sundays we visited the Maku'u Farmers Market, about 3 miles away. This is the place to go for fresh fruit and a variety of other foods. From there we headed to Ahalanui Park, which is a hot spring pool which the ocean flows into it to maintain about a 90-degree temperature.

The following day we hit up the nude beach, Kehena Black Sand Beach. Michael happens to be one of the drum masters every Sunday at the weekly drum circle. This beach features black sand, and it is one of my favorite nude beaches in the world. There are some beautiful cliffs as the backdrop to the sand and the ocean. Apparently, it's a popular spot with local nudists! Everyone was very friendly to us.

As it turned out, we ended up hangin' out at Hangin' Loose most of the week. In the evenings, there was a very informal dinner gathering at the bar/pool area. Michael and Jan would bring what they cooked that night to the bar, and the place became a little pot luck. event When we learned of this, we went to the nearby market and grabbed something to BBQ so we could share.

I must report on days when we were at the pool area, the pet birds talked to us! They speak surprisingly well, and you do understand them. At first, it took us by surprise because we did not expect to hear "Hey...how ya doin?" from a bird.

Again, such a relaxed environment to be vacationing at.

You might want to give Hangin' Loose a visit, but only if you really want to relax in paradise!
